

October 2019 Ensign: Ministering Principles
"Are You Missing This Vital Part of Ministering?"

REJOICE WITH THEM THAT DO REJOICE!

Here are three ideas that can help (and one to avoid) as we look to focus on the good God puts in our lives.

BE AWARE

see not only their burdens and struggles but also their strengths, talents, and successes.

FIND REASONS TO CELEBRATE

Call to congratulate, drop off a card, or go out for lunch. Celebrate successes large or small.

SEE THE HAND OF THE LORD

Sometimes rejoicing with others means helping them see reasons to rejoice—no matter what difficulties or delights enter our lives.

DON'T LIMIT YOUR ABILITY TO REJOICE

Instead of comparing, we can compliment those we minister to. Freely share what you appreciate about them or their family members.
